REBEL

PINEHURST HIGH SCHOOL
Pinehurst, N. C.

BILL McDONALD
Editor-in-Chief

Dedication

It is with great gratitude that we, the annual staff, dedicate the 1964 REBEL to one who has, by his teaching, gained a part in our memory and who has given unselfishly of his own time so that the student body might benefit.

With great respect and admiration for a fine teacher, advisor, and friend, we dedicate the REBEL to MR. HOBART EARL WILLIAMS.

History

When the class of '64 started school, we were the largest ever to hit Pinehurst and required a division of homerooms. That was the first example of how our class was "different" enough to be remembered. Although there may be a few things we may not wish to be remembered for, we feel that we have left our mark of distinction.

We were among the first classes to be in the "new" elementary building. The auditorium and gym were completed during our early years, and somehow, we didn't quite help in their construction. The highlights of our elementary years were our chapel programs. We seemed to have a yen for drama as we loved to do these twice annually, plus several little independent exhibitions of talent.

By the time we were in junior high enthusiasm for basketball struck us, and has since then remained with most of us. In the seventh grade, one of the homerooms was moved into the high school building. Since that year of our youthful ways getting on the older students' nerves, there has never been another seventh grade homeroom in the high school building.

By the end of our eighth year in school we began to feel a little more included by planning for high school activities such as clubs and athletics to take place after our eighth grade graduation.

During our freshman year we were initiated into various clubs by having to perform rediculous feats. Members of our class participated in basketball, baseball, and cheerleading, as well as many clubs. We were responsible for building the most successful bonfire ever for the pep rally to get basketball season under way. In that first year of high school, we picked up the nasty habit of throwing gum on the ceiling of the present senior homeroom.

Our sophomore year was spent striving to be included in high school, trying to do away with our title of immaturity. This was the year of snows and parties—activities to make ourselves known. Algebra II, French II, and Home Ec. II seemed to be just too (II) tough. Driver Education classes did away with many Saturday morning sleeping hours. We will never forget those jam sessions out on the steps during lunch period.

Many have said that our junior year was the best. It was the year of our undefeated boys' basketball team, and the usual class rings and United Nations speeches. We made the most money ever on the annual Halloween Carnival and used it for an "Evening in Paris", the first PHS Junior-Senior held in several years. We played a big part in high school life as we were well represented in clubs and activities, beauty contests, athletics, and Girls' State and Boys' State.

Of course everyone said that the senior year would be the easiest and the best, but after living through college and job applications, the uncertainty of the future, decisions to be made, books to be read, examples to be set, etc., our class has wondered whether the "easiest year" applied to '63—'64.

Through all our pitfalls and causes for worry, as well as several honorable deeds which we have done, we feel that the class of '64 has left its mark at PHS. We have managed to be superlative in everything from size, money-making projects, and number of teachers married off to the amount of successfully executed pranks and quantity of teachers we have disillusioned. With these marks of distinction, we leave Pinehurst High School, hoping that our historical events and our hysterical actions will not soon be forgotten.

Outstanding Seniors

This year instead of having superlatives the Annual Staff has decided to have outstanding seniors. These nine seniors were chosen by the faculty on the basis of citizenship, scholarship, and extracurricular activities.

JIMMY DIETENHOFER
Jimmy seems to have a way with people (especially females) so that he manages to remain at the top of the list most of the time. His good looks and charm show why he has many friends.

BETSY GRIER

Betsy's cheerful disposition and inquiring mind are responsible for her many friends and variety of honors. Beta Club, Marshal, Cheerleader, and Homecoming Queen are only a few of the honors Betsy holds. But even with her many activities, she always has time to be a friend.

LYNDA HINSON

Lynda's ability to get along well with people, which accounts for her many friends, is the main-spring of her pleasing personality. Her interest in everything and everyone as well as her determination to get the job done accounts for trust placed in her by fellow students.

PATSY HUNT

Patsy has shown definite leadership ability all through school. One of the best examples of this attitude, is the way she performs on the basketball court. Her many friends have expressed their confidence in her by electing her to numerous positions in school activities. She is known as being energetic, understanding, and a friend to all.

JIMMY MARTIN

Jimmy has managed to make many friends among students as well as teachers. His keen mind and ever ready wit are revealed by his many clever comments at unexpected moments.

BILL McDONALD

Bill has established a firm reputation as outstanding athlete. Besides his ability on the basketball court or on the baseball field, he has shown leadership by being Editor-in-Chief of the 1964 "REBEL." Bill will also be remembered for his talent on the drums.

JENNIFER OWENS

Jennifer's calm, easy-going manner has always been impressive to those who know her. Her intelligence and ability in extracurricular activities reveal why she has won many honors in school.

BRENDA SHEFFIELD

Brenda has a large number of friends as a result of her friendliness toward everyone. She has long been known for a terrific personality and a sharp wit. She is a good sport in basketball and other activities.

SANDY WICKER

Sandy has long been known as the one who can be depended upon. Her liking for people makes people like her—a true friend. Somehow the "kids" always wind up at Sandys'.

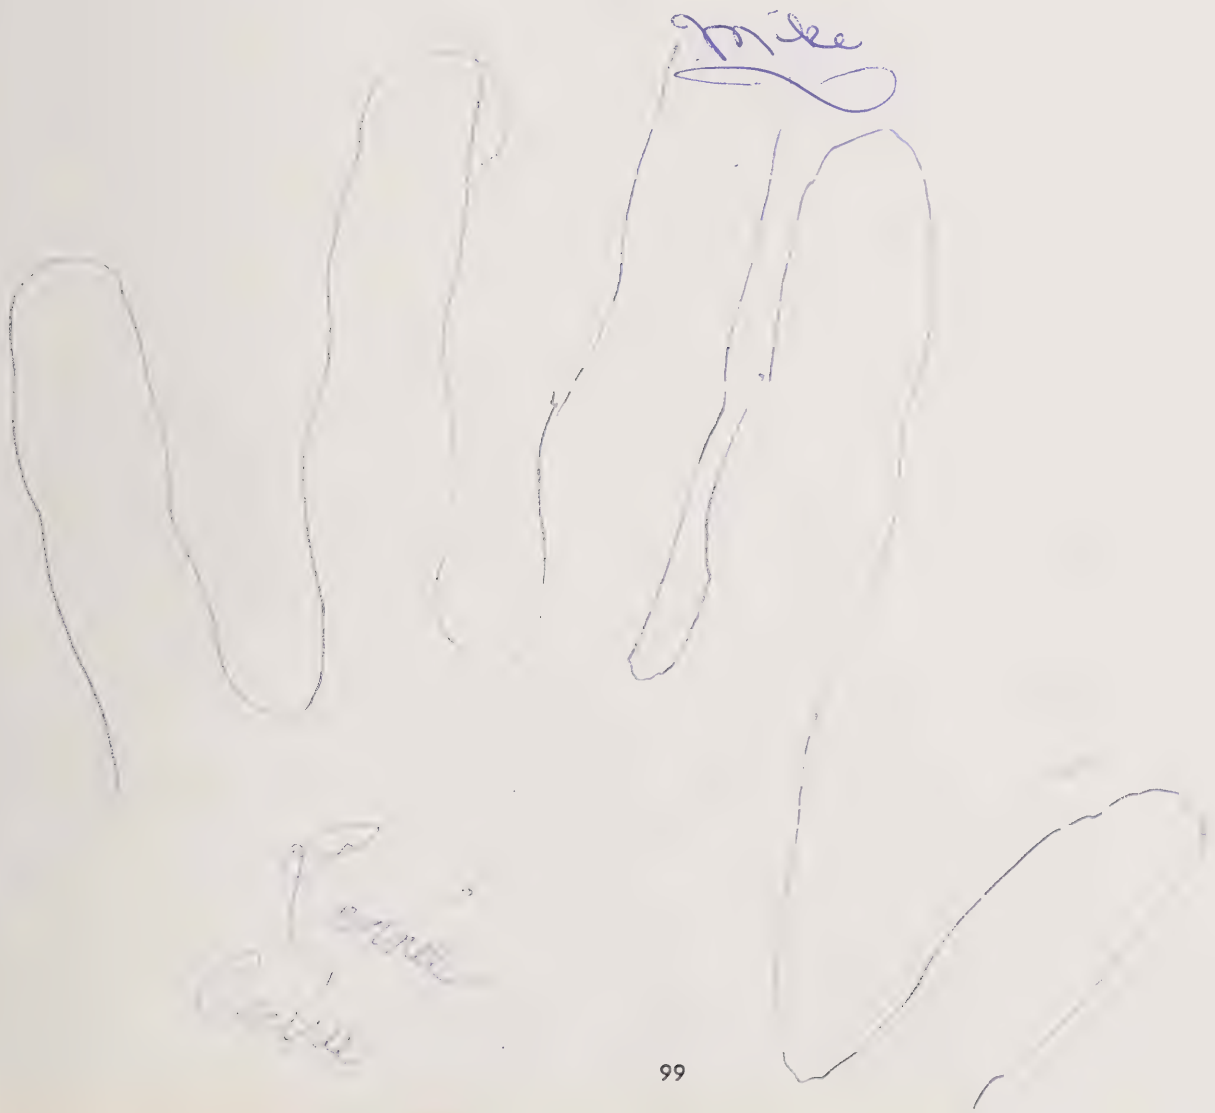
Autographs

Nancy,

I guess will always remember this year; Our great "fun", hard times with French II, and that crazy shopping trip to Rockingham. Just think! In May I get my driver's license! (You may die!)

Looking forward to Next Year

Mike

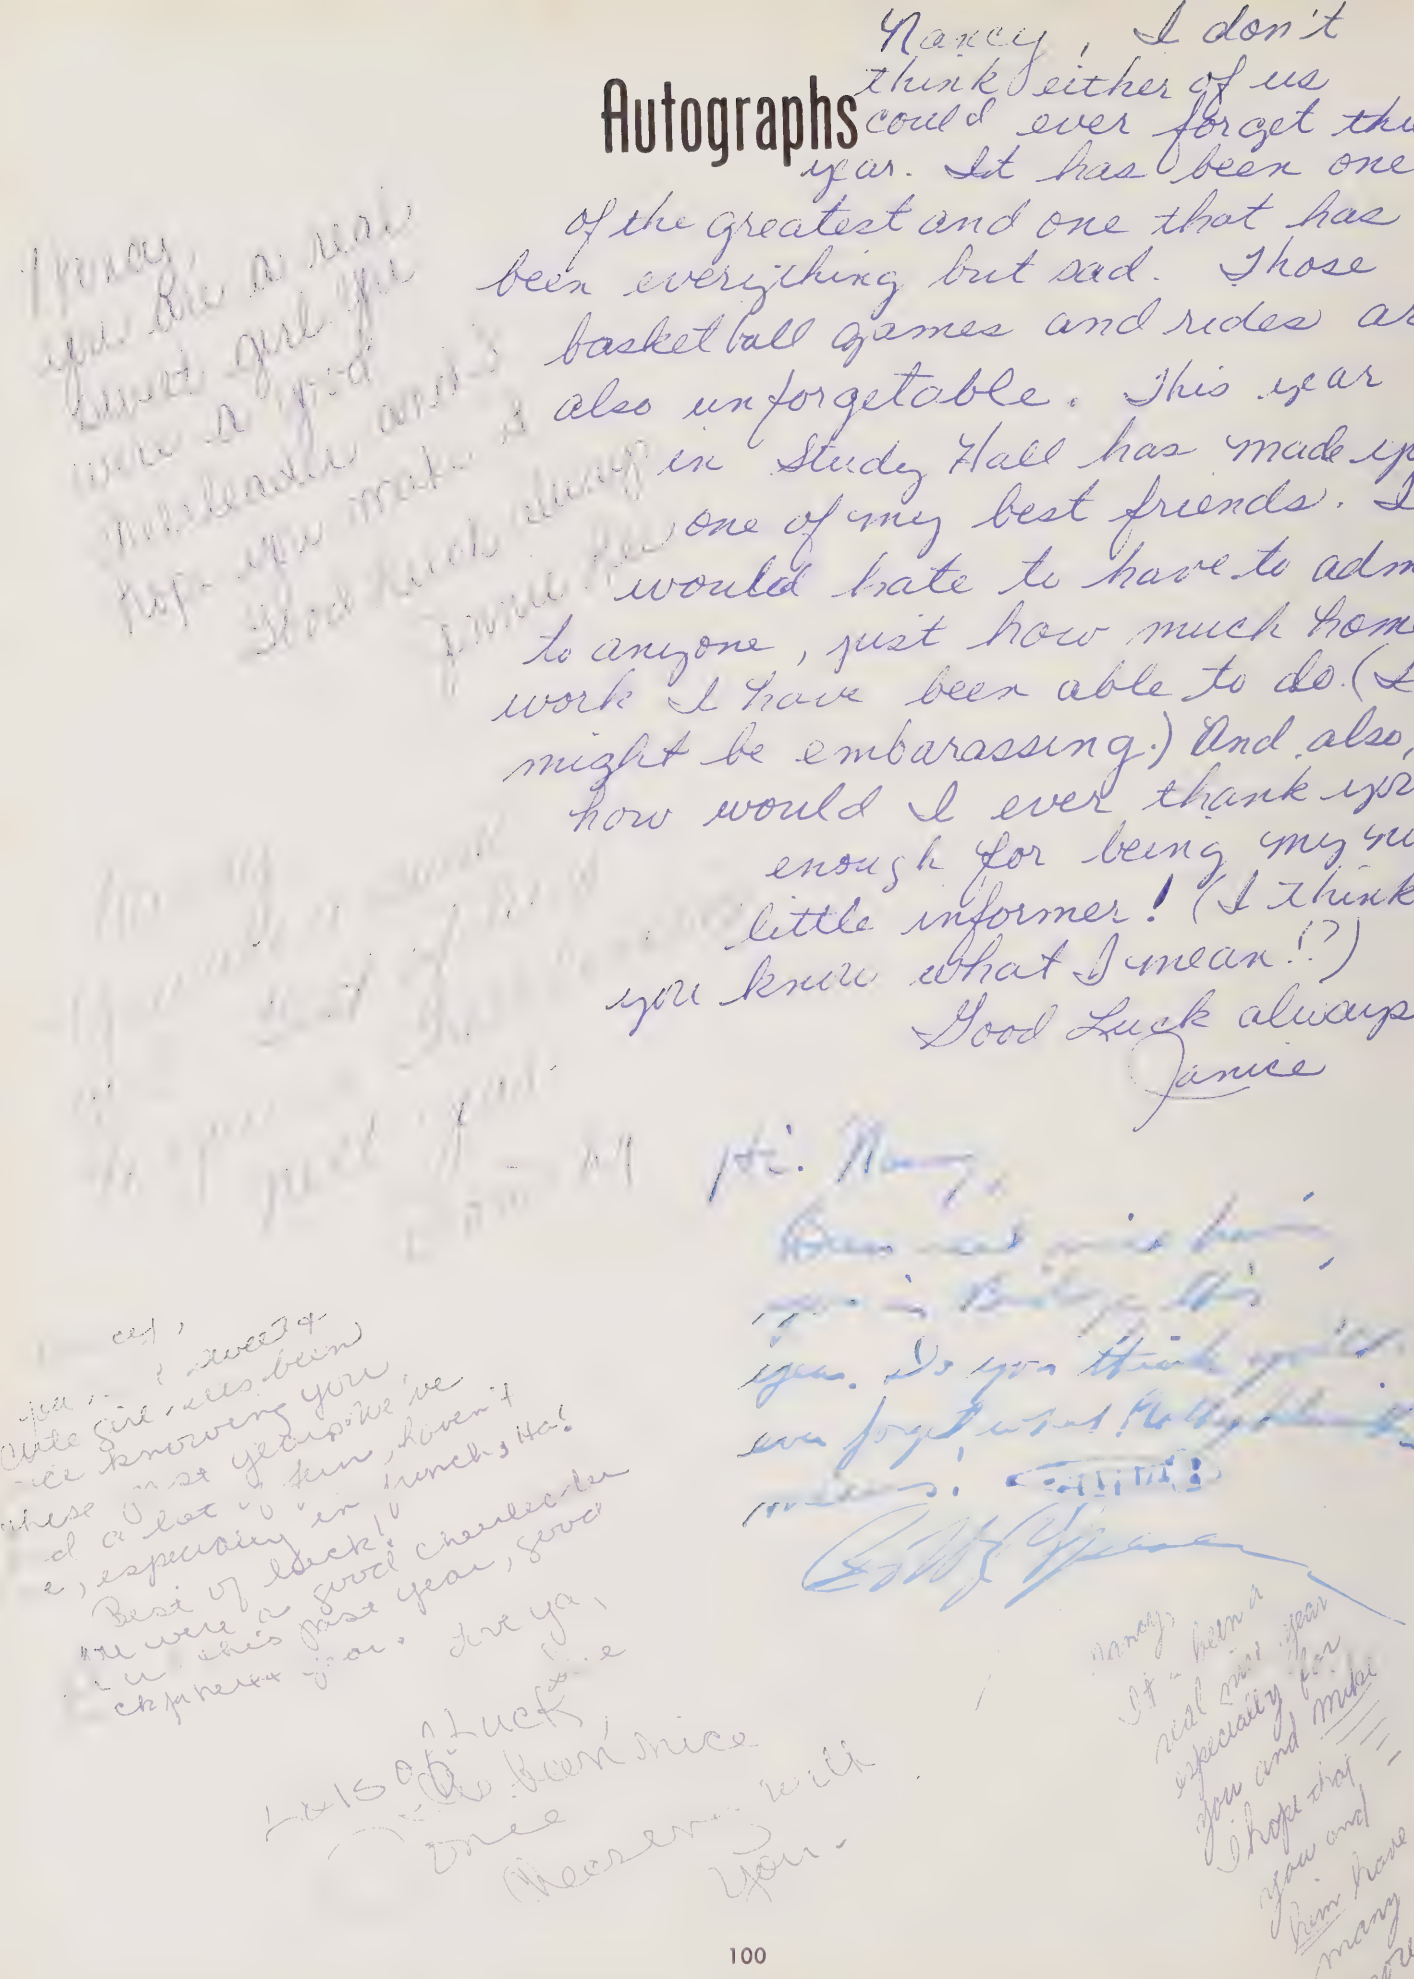


Autographs

Nancy, I don't think either of us could ever forget this year. It has been one of the greatest and one that has been everything but sad. Those basketball games and rides are also unforgetable. This year in Study Hall has made you one of my best friends. I would hate to have to admit to anyone, just how much homework I have been able to do. (It might be embarassing.) And also, how would I ever thank you enough for being my own little informer! (I think you know what I mean!?)

Good Luck always,

Janice



Autographs

Nancy,
I think it's an honor to have been with you these years in school. Best of luck, Nancy.

Nancy,
It's been a real pleasure
being in your class this year.
You show more zeal than most any girl I know and wish you lots of luck in the coming years at Ole P.H.S.

Nancy,
It's been great
seeing in school
with you this year and the past ten years.
I hope you'll succeed in every thing you attempt.
Best of luck
Janice

Nancy,
I know we're both looking forward to getting our licenses, but just wait till we do. We should have a ball hauling each other around - not forgetting Mike of course.
Congratulations on making A in Citizenship. We'll lick this thing (censored of course) yet.
We should have an even better year in 64-65 — no French I mean.
Have fun this summer,
Barbara

Autographs

I hope that you have well year as we have had this year. I have restored, I believe, most of our friendships we had long ago "at grandma's".
I guess that was one of the nicest cousins and best friends I have ever had. Stay sweet - and don't forget to stay from those kind ways you have.
Look in the future,
Linda McKenzie.

Nancy,
Well next year we are left and our classes will "have to make a go of it. You will have to go to the beach with us next Easter because the only ones left are Nance, Penny, Janice and myself. I think we will have a good time with you along.
Good luck next year Barbara Hutto

Autographs

Nancy -
Cheerleading has been a ball We've certainly had our share of "fights" but you and Penny and I always managed to get out all right I hope you get it next year and have an even greater time - (possible?) Have a ball next year and remember little ole me stuck away from P.H.S. and having a ball. You're a real sweet girl.
Jennifer

Nancy,
You were the friendliest and the best cheerleader this year. I enjoyed going to the games with ya. That bus has been a mess this year. Be good and take care of old P. H. S.

Jim

Nancy,
This has been a great year with cheerleading and all. I hope that all of the cheerleaders this years can be cheerleaders next year.

Good Luck
Nancy

Nancy,
I like you also. I am sorry I ate your lunch. Bad of Jack to steal your money. Hope you get your money back.
